

To Lucy (Matchmaker) Monday 05/13/13

Thank you Lucy for working so hard to match me up with people to date. My last date or Introduction was #8 Pat & [redacted]. I found out her last name when I<sup>u</sup> called one time, and left a message.

When we scheduled our date to be on May 11th, Saturday, I suggested at Tahoe fees in North Modesto, (almost Riverbank), as Pat lived in Fodi, which the meeting place was mutually half-way.

Pat already knew of my 54th birthday from previous phone call, and came with a gift! She surprised me with the gift. I kind of thought maybe something might be for me that day, but wasn't for sure.

We met there at 11:30am, ate lunch, then went to Broomers for Putt-Putt golf. We played two games, but she never had been there before. We had fun on the courses, and she was competitive but very fair. We established ourselves more by sharing, and I felt she was testing the waters to see if we were compatible in more areas.

We did find similar interests, and talked more of them, was funny, and continued with playing Putt, Putt golf. ①

We took a drink break, then went back out to play the other course; (only two courses at Boomers)

Later we drove the racetrack cars only once, and was not planned, but the cost of only two games of putt, putt would've been more than the inclusion of racing.

We left the park (Boomers) by 5:30pm. We talked at my car some, and she wanted to know if I'd be interested in seeing her again for a second date, and I said yes, but as friends, and to take it slow, and that we'd pray that this would be the right thing, if we were to pursue any further commitment!

We texted and talked on the phone since the 25th of April (My brother's birthday) the day I originally called her, setting up the date. It was nine (9) days of that before we went out.

Now we call almost every day, and text occasionally. Nothing said has ever been an issue with Pat, as #1 she is so mature in her conversations, and #2 she is and has been interested in me ("into me") from the 4th of May; that #3 she has opened up her heart and mind with me as if to say you're invited. Next page for two things about you Lucy ... → (2)

#10 Lucy, you have been there for me to date, hearing of my gripes, feeling my pain when I cried on the phone, also when you listened to me when I've been silly or just regular. #9 Thank you for just being a phone call away for my dating experiences, trying your best to match me up with someone I can feel compatible with.

P.S. Not sure how long I'll want my membership of Introductions on hold, but prior to this letter I spoke to you Lucy, and for now I'm choosing to do so. It feels a little scary, like by not moving on with #9, that it's potential loss of that next whoever someone. But all in life's order of things. If things don't go well in all areas, I'll be glad to move on with #9. I'll call you at that time to let you know

Thanks, sincerely
Stanley
